

ORDINANCE NO. 235-88

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 12, SECTION 12-719 OF THE WILLOW PARK CODE OF ORDINANCES DEALING WITH SIGN REGULATIONS:

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Willow Park finds that an amendment to the Code of ordinances dealing with Sign Regulations is necessary to safeguard the life and health of the citizens and inhabitants of the City of Willow Park; NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF WILLOW PARK, TEXAS:

Sec. 1. THAT Chapter 12, Section 12-719 of the Willow Park Code of Ordinances be amended to read as follows:

"Sec. 12 -7 19. Ground or Monument Signs

These signs are designed to be used along or in supplement with a pole with a free standing sign or a wall sign, where allowed, but subject to height and location restrictions in all districts where allowed. Said signs shall not exceed six (6) feet in height above ground except where otherwise allowed, and shall be located at least fifteen (15) feet behind the curb of any street, or the property line of said lot. Such sign shall not be wider at the top than at the lowest part of the sign, including supports. The lowest part of the sign shall not be higher than two (2) feet above ground. Said sign shall not be located within any visibility triangle and shall not obstruct the view of driveways or parking areas. Said signs shall be limited to identification of a building by name or owner, address, developer or tenants. Churches, Colleges, Public buildings and institutional educational uses shall be allowed to use such signs for the purposes stated above as well as for marquee purposes announcing names, dates, times and other information concerning the programs and services offered on site. The maximum area for each side of such sign may not exceed eighty (80) square feet."

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.
